Honorable Alexander Holtzoff
District Judge
United States District Court
Washington, D. C.

Dear Judge Holtzoff:

25X1A9a

[redacted] an employee of this Agency, has been summoned to serve as a juror in the District Court on Thursday, December 27, 1956. [redacted]

It has been, and will continue to be, the policy of this Agency to expect its employees to fulfill their civic duty of jury service without seeking excuses under other than the most pressing personal or official circumstances. In the present case, I feel that official reasons are important enough that the Agency should intervene on [redacted] behalf in requesting an excuse from service at this time. He is a senior employee of the Agency directing an activity of utmost importance to the United States under present world conditions. Because of the critical situation in his area of responsibility, [redacted] has had to cancel a long planned vacation and the loss of his services now would be most serious.
